LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1956, Fillmore High School of Fillmore, Marion Township, Putnam County, Indiana, being of sound mind do hereby make the following bequests to our fellow men:

I, Evelyn Jane Arnold, do herewith bequeath to Mr. Smith my ability to break down the judge's chair.

I, Julia Mae Arnold, do herewith bequeath to the Junior girls my love for chewing gum in typing class.

I, Ann Austin, do herewith bequeath to Earl Chestnut my love for second year Latin.

I, Peggy Broadstreet, do herewith bequeath my ability and love for leading yells to my younger sisters.

I, Darlene Cash, do herewith bequeath my love for rock-and-roll music to Doretta Harris.

I, Judith Cash, do herewith bequeath to Charles Storm my naturally curly hair.

I, Randy Collins, do herewith bequeath my love for jam sessions to Jim Walls.

I, Audrey Everts, do herewith bequeath my ability to keep quiet in study hall to Karen Sims.

I, DeLoss Greenlee, do herewith bequeath my ability to dig graves to Miss Nutt.

I, Rex Harcourt, do herewith bequeath my love for all-night parties to Bob Ross.

I, Gail Irwin, do herewith bequeath my good behavior and no tardiness during my senior year to Rosemary Jones, and a new telephone to Mr. Johnson.

I, Joyce Jarrett, do herewith bequeath my long hair to Patricia Broadstreet.

I, Sharon Maxwell, do herewith bequeath my wings and halo to Mr. Pruitt.

I, Charlotte Miller, do herewith bequeath to Mr. Johnson my ability to lose and misplace my belongings.

I, Jim Mundy, do herewith bequeath my good behavior and neat locker to Mr. Johnson.

I, Luella Phillips, do herewith bequeath my love for bookkeeping to Carolyn Ames.

I, Joan Roach, do herewith bequeath my footstool for typing class to Janice Beaman.

I, Rosalie Robinson, do herewith bequeath my desire to get on the honor roll to the Junior class.

I, Revenna Singleton, do herewith bequeath my good times in chemistry class to Gerald Clark.

I, Larry Skinner, do herewith bequeath my ability to eat popcorn to Gary Roberts.

I, Herschel Smith, do herewith bequeath my perfect attendance in my senior year to Frank Schafer.

I, Wanda Storm, do herewith bequeath to Jimmy Cash my one dimple to go with his one dimple.

I, Don Tharp, do herewith bequeath to Mr. Craig an all-boy Latin class for next year.

I, Jack Underwood, do herewith bequeath my ability to be student manager to Jerry Ozment.

I, Peggy Wells, do herewith bequeath my love for swimming to Buelah Phillips.

I, Joe Zeiner, do herewith bequeath my ability to play first trombone to Vincent Kiger.

We hereby affix our signatures this thirteenth day of February, nineteen hundred, fifty-six.

IMAGINATION

There is no question that the fund of man's knowledge is being added to at a tremendous rate. Many men become famous from their contributions to this fund. However, many more reach the pinnacle of success through the imaginative application of what they already know. Imagination is the catalyst that makes the sum of the parts greater than the whole. Carefully mix your new-found knowledge with it — and you will succeed!
